Southwest Salsa Challenge

Do you like a Challenge? Want to be a Southwestern Chef? Then this event is for you!

You can be a Southwestern Chef and make your own homemade Salsa by participating in this event. We will coordinate the group into teams and each team will have to:

1. Create a Salsa recipe
2. Create a name for the Salsa
3. Create a label for the Salsa
4. Prepare the Salsa

Colored bandannas will be issued to differentiate the teams. All basic food and spice ingredients will be provided. Official tasting judges will be scoring each team on recipe created, name, label and original flavor in addition to the zest and taste for the salsa.

A combined score from the judges will give us our “Champions” of the day. The Champions will be announced and receive their prize at the Gala Dinner on Thursday evening, May 13, 2010.
